NodeWeaver Edge Cloud

NodeWeaver bridges the world of private cloud platforms and hyperconverged infrastructure with a unified cloud fabric that brings all pieces together in building-block style. Together with Intel, NodeWeaver is helping to meet the growing demand for better and more efficient edge compute across many different verticals. Leveraging purpose-built IoT and Edge processors like Intel Atom[®], NodeWeaver's Edge Cloud is optimized for the Intelligent Edge, delivering full datacenter capabilities in edge environments with cloud-like flexibility and management.

The logo consists of the word "NODEWEAVER" in a bold, sans-serif font. "NODE" is in blue and "WEAVER" is in orange.
